

REFLECTIONS FOR THIS SUNDAY

“21TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR”

FIRST READING:-A reading from the Book of Isaiah(66:18-21)

Isaiah foretells to the returned exiles the future glory of Jerusalem to which people of all nations will come and which will be the centre of the knowledge of the true God.

SECOND READING: - A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews (12:5-7, 11-13)

REFLECTION:

During the time of Jesus, the rabbi believed that salvation was the monopoly of the Jewish people. Therefore the question, “ Lord, will only a few be saved?” seems superfluous, but is of fundamental importance to every Christian today. Jesus, instead of answering the question directly, responds: “ Strive to enter through the narrow door.”

Saying “people will come from east and west, from north and south, and will eat in the Kingdom of God”, Jesus makes it very clear that entrance into the kingdom is universal. Though universal, it is never automatic. Those who are obstinate and unwilling to change their evil ways of life can not become part of this Kingdom. Close association with Jesus and hearing of his words are no guarantee for our admittance into the kingdom. To enter therein and to participate in the Lord’s meal, one has to enter through the narrow door. Narrow door is the way indicated by Jesus- the way of the cross.

To enter into life, it is not enough that we recognize Jesus, but it is more important that Jesus recognizes us. The distinguishing mark of Jesus’ disciples is their love for one another. Hence, love and be recognized by Jesus.
