

Christmas Day

Lydia Lynette Daniels – Class-8

Christmas is one of the greatest and most important festivals in the Catholic Calendar, it is a day of joy and reunion Christians is the annual Christian festival celebrating Jesus birth. Christmas is an archetype of True King and Serve God. During Christmas we Catholics need to control over apoplexy and be of pure hearts in order to enjoy the real joy of Christmas day. During Christmas each and every one of us needs to be extraordinary in our own ways, may it be, even by praying as well an extraverts should greet Athens and be kind to others during this season. Christmas is celebrated as the Highest King Jesus Christ's birth i.e. on 25th December and to pray for him to come closer to us. Not otherwise but at least during this season we should be more pious and a fanatical follower of our religion, because it was He who gave birth to a new and true religion "Christianity". During Advent other than Catholic Houses also many people decorate their houses by setting up Christmas Tress and decorative items etc. Christmas means He was Born, He died and He will come again to us. During Christmas season (Advent) people begin decorating, whitewashings and cleaning their houses because according to us Jesus is not only born in our hearts but also in our houses. In this time we remember how the Blessed Virgin Mary and St Joseph took so much pain and carried out so much suffering to give birth to Jesus Christ but they still got no room for the Baby to take Birth but only a stable where there were not only the Angels of Lord God but also Animals. In remembrance of the Beautiful Child Jesus Christ people also put cribs in their houses to show and remember the whole scene that must have been taken place when Jesus Our Savior was born.

On the night before Christmas (Charismas eve) thousands of people go to church for the midnight mass that is held in very parish. Everybody gets into that warm quality of forming a pleasing combinations to each and every Christmas carol that is sung on the eve of Christmas. On that Hazy night each and every Catholic sings the joy of glory to glorify the new king born on Christmas day. On that day even a heinous person is changed and sings Hosanna in the highest. Even the smallest of child without improvising can sing a Christmas Carol on this day. That is why Christmas is accepted as the happiest festivals in the Christian Calendar because each person is very jocund on this day.
