

REFLECTIONS FOR THIS SUNDAY

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

FIRST READING:- A reading from the Book of Exodus (17:3-7)

Despite their ingratitude and mistrust, God accompanies His chosen people, the Israelites, by providing water from a rock in the desert.

RESPONSE :- O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING: - A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans (5:1-2, 5-8)

St. Paul's message is an encouragement to persevere in spite of adversity. He reminds us Christians that God has given us his extraordinary love because Christ died for us while we were still sinners.

GOSPEL :- A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John (4:5-42)

In this passage St. John narrates the story of Jesus' encounter with a Samaritan woman. The message is clear: "We are loved in spite of our sins."

REFLECTION:

Human beings thirst for God. The thirst for water becomes a symbol for the thirst for God. The symbol of water resonates beautifully with the love of God “poured out” into Paul’s heart through the Holy Spirit. The symbol of water runs throughout today’s readings.

Moses, in the first reading, strikes the rock and water flows. The Hebrew people were dying of thirst in their wandering in the desert after the Exodus from Egypt. They complained to Moses and Moses cried out to the Lord. The Lord responded, “Strike the rock, and water will flow from it for the people to drink.”

Unexpected and unmerited, the Hebrew were saved from death by God by the gift of water.

Jesus in the Gospel of John, encounters a Samaritan woman at Jacob’s Well and asks her for a drink. She hesitates incredulous that a Jew and male would ask her a Samaritan and a female for a drink-- Jews typically despise and shun Samaritans. Jesus assures her that he will give her “living water.” Touched deeply by Jesus, the woman spreads the word to her fellow Samaritans. And the gospel tells us that many Samaritans came to believe in him.

God comes to the Samaritans, unexpected and unmerited.

We are all -- like the Jews wandering in the desert and like the Samaritan woman -- in desperate need for God. We are needy human beings wandering in the desert of our often secular and materialistic culture.

But we have been invited into a new relationship with God through the gift of the Holy Spirit poured into our hearts. And Lent is the season that invites us to plumb our emptiness and alienation from God and to return to Jesus who comes to us unexpected and unmerited.
