

REFLECTIONS FOR THIS SUNDAY

DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART ST. MARGARET MARY

St. Margaret Mary, a Visitation Nun had a great love for the Blessed Sacrament. Her intense life of prayer and penance led to the great revelations of the Sacred Heart. The first revelation took place in December 1673. She says, "One day, I felt myself wholly penetrated with the Divine Presence. He disclosed to me the marvels of His love and the inexplicable secrets of His Sacred Heart." The second revelation occurred sometime in 1674. St. Margaret Mary states, "Jesus Christ, my sweet Master, presented Himself to me, all resplendent with glory. Flames issued from every part of His sacred humanity. He disclosed to me His most loving and most amiable Heart." It was in June 1675 that the third revelation took place. St. Margaret Mary says, "I received from my God special tokens of His love, and felt urged with the desire of making Him some return and of rendering Him love for love." The rest of Sister Margaret Mary's life was spent all for the honour and glory of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In 1856, Pope Pius IX gave the Feast of the Sacred Heart to the entire Church.

ST. MARGARET MARY'S CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

O Sacred Heart of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honouring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that displease Thee. "I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death... I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O heart of Love, I hope for all from Thine infinite goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee. I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite goodness, grant that my name be engraved on Thy heart for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants. Amen.

REFLECTION:

Today, in our parish, we are celebrating the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This is actually a celebration of God's love as found in the person of Jesus Christ. And we have some idea of God's great love for his people and of the equally great love of Christ for us. There is nothing we Christians could do to make God love us more or less, for God's love is unconditional and infinite. St. John, writing about the way God revealed his great love in our midst through Christ, says: "He sent his only Son to the world that we might have life through him." (1 Jn 4: 9). We know very well that Christ won for us by his death on the cross, a death which turned out to be so bloody that when "one of the soldiers thrust a lance into his side, immediately blood and water gushed forth". (Jn 19: 34) Our Lord Jesus Christ was a great lover. He was the most generous hearted person who ever lived. He never refused a request made by any one. He went out of his way to cross racial and religious barriers. His heart compassed the whole world in its love. The great and generous heart of Christ still loves in the same way all humanity and each person in its personally. Even today he calls us saying, "Come to me all you who labour and are overburdened and I will refresh you." (Mt 11: 28) Our human heart often turns out to be like a ship on a stormy sea driven about by winds blowing from all the corners of heaven. In those moments, if we come to the Sacred Heart, he will give great comfort and strength to suffer the trials of this life lovingly with him.
