Message by Parish Priest

Dear Parishioners!

The feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary is celebrated each year on the eighth of September. Usually it is the custom of the church to celebrate the feast day of a saint on the date of their death as this is truly their birth into everlasting happiness. Mary, however, entered this world sinless through the privilege of the Immaculate Conception and is the firstborn of the redeemed. Her nativity is a cause for great joy as it is considered the "dawn of our salvation"

It is generally believed that the date of September 8 was chosen to celebrate the Nativity of Mary since the civil year began in Constantinople on September 1. Scholars believe that this date was chosen since it was symbolic that the "beginning" of the work of salvation should be commemorated near to the beginning of the New Year. The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary was later fixed at December 8, nine months prior.

The primary theme portrayed in the liturgical celebration of this feast day is that the world had been in the darkness of sin and with the arrival of Mary begins a glimmer of light. That light which appears at Mary's holy birth pre-announces the arrival of Christ, the Light of the World. Her birth is the beginning of a better world:

The second theme of Joy is announced at the beginning of the Mass, "Let us celebrate with joyful hearts the birth of the Virgin Mary, of whom was born the Sun of Justice, Christ our Lord." It is with these two themes of both the approach of light and joy that the faithful senses the great happiness and festive nature on this beautiful feast of Mary's birthday.

May the celebration of the birthday of our Mother Mary fill our lives with light of Christ and fill our hearts with Joy. Happy Birthday Ma.

(((SUNDAY READINGS & REFLECTION)))

1st Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18

The author affirms that we cannot learn the counsel of God or discern his will because our understanding is limited. But there is no need to despair because God gives us wisdom and the Holy Spirit.

Response Ps: 90

O Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to the next.

2nd Reading: Philemon 9b-10, 12-17

Writing to Philemon Paul acknowledges the master's right to the slave, but adds that Onesimus has become a Christian and so should consider him as a brother.

Gospel : Luke 14:25-33

The parable of the man desiring to build a tower and the king going to war teach us the lesson that if we cannot finish, then better not to start. This applies also in the case of becoming a disciple of Jesus.

Prayers of the Faithful:

Lord, make us your true disciples.

पहला पाठ: प्रज्ञा ग्रंथ 9:13-18

प्रज्ञा-ग्रंथ के मन में यह संदेह है कि 'कौन ईश्वर की हक्का जान सकता है?' इसलिए वह नम्रतापूर्वक ईश्वर से प्रार्थना करता है। यदि हमारे मन में येशु की शिक्षा पर विश्वास करें, तो हमारे मन में संदेह उत्पन्न नहीं होगा।

अनुवाक्य: स्तोत्र 89

हे प्रभू! तू पीढ़ी-दर-पीढ़ी हमारा अपश्रय बना रहा।

दूसरा पाठ: फिलेमोन के नाम पत्र 9:10,12-17

संत पौलुस ने बन्दीगृह में ओनेसिमस नामक एक दास का जो अपने स्वामी के घर से भाग गया था, ईसाई धर्म में दीक्षित कर उसे उसके स्वामी के पास वापस भेज दिया।

सुसमाचार: संत लूकस 14:25-33

प्रभु येशु अपने शिष्यों से माँग करते हैं कि, तुम ऐसे व्यक्तियों को त्याग दो जो तुम्हारी धार्मिक साधना तथा विश्वास में बाधा डालते हैं—वे चाहे तुम्हारे माँ-बाप, भाई-बहन या पड़ोसी ही क्यों न हों।

विश्वासियों के निवेदन

हे पिता, हमारी प्रार्थना सुन।

REFLECTION

Brothers and Sisters,

We as Christians, are disciples of Jesus and we have to imitate his life to follow him on the way he chose on earth. That is not a simple affair. It is a project for the whole of life that requires preparation, discernment and firm decision. The vocation to be a disciple is a choice able to change or to upset even our deeper social relationships. Because it is an exclusive choice to which Jesus is the only reference. But, how can we understand this radical appeal of Christ? Would he teach us to hate our own and our family members? It would be a paradox with all his teaching and his mission. Because all his life is an expression of great love and love is not only the synthesis of his teaching, but also his own commandment to those who follow him. Then, what does to hate or to carry the cross mean in this context? As attentive as we are, we can understand that not to hate those that we must love for Jesus, means to be free, before every social relationship which can prevent us from loving Christ and serving him with all our heart; free before material goods, free before power and free before all human relationships. That is the detachment. Then, we need to build another type of relationship with Christ, carrying the cross, that means, accepting all kinds of difficulties that the detachment can cause around us. That is the attachment.

Only like this can we be disciples of Christ and open ourselves to a large possibility for a universal love. So, we can really love men, not as blood-brothers, but much better, as brothers in the Lord. In other words, to be disciples means therefore, to love people not according to human considerations, but according to God's will, or to watch men not with human eyes but with God's eyes; because human considerations exclude whilst God's views include. Loving men or any other creature more than God can exclude even God from the cycle of relationship, but according to the love of God all the world is embraced, as Jesus showed us on the cross. Jesus knows that such a project is difficult to achieve, but not impossible. That's why he proposes that we take time, to discern and experience its strengths, if they allow us to follow him.

READINGS OF THE WEEK

14/Sat: Num 21:4b-9/ Ps 78/ Phlm 2:6-11/
Jn 3:13-17

Oceans contain the bulk of our planet's water supply, and also most of the immense variety of living creatures, many of them are threatened for various reasons. Creation is a project of love given by God to humanity. Our solidarity with the "common home" is born from our faith. Let us pray this month that politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world's seas and oceans.

The Clover Prayer

God our Heavenly Father, You have given us life through the Death and Resurrection of Your Beloved Son, Jesus Christ;

Jesus, our Saving Lord, You came into a world darkened by man's sin and gave it light through your teachings;

Holy Spirit, The Breath of God within us, You guide and enlighten us and give us the strength of our conviction;

Saint Peter Claver, who became an example for us, You showed us the Love of God, the light of Christ, and the Strength of the Holy Spirit;

We pray now that all we say and do, in your honor, be a continuation of your work here on earth.

St. Peter Claver, Pray for Us.
