Message by Parish Priest

TODAY IS THE SECOND LAST SUNDAY of the Church year. Next Sunday we will celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. On this Sunday the readings traditionally speak about the end of the world, the end of time, the final coming of Jesus to take all peoples and all creation to himself. For Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega: the source and the end of all things. In the passage immediately before today's Gospel, Jesus spoke about the fall and destruction of Jerusalem. It was a catastrophic experience for the Jews: even worse than the destruction of Rome and St Peter's would be for us. Because, for the Jews, Jerusalem and its Temple was the very dwelling place of God. It was not the first time the Temple had been desecrated and the Jews driven out into exile but this destruction has lasted 2,000 years. There is a Muslim mosque now on the site and that is not likely to change in the foreseeable future.

For the early Church it was a very significant event. Even in the letters of Paul, which predated the destruction of the city and Temple, he already speaks of the "new Temple" which are the members of the Body of Christ. Christ was to be found in people and not in a building and that is why the destruction of the Vatican and St Peter's would not affect the essential nature of the Church. In the early Church, Christians assembled in private homes. Churches, as we know them, only came into existence when, because of the rapid growth of Christianity, homes were too small. Assembly halls had to be used which, in the course of time, were exclusively used for religious worship.

Today Jesus speaks of the appearance of the Son of Man in glory and the final establishment of the Reign of God. Many people will come under that Reign, probably many more than we may expect. Others may reject it forever and choose the outer darkness.

The Son of Man here is understood as Jesus, the man on earth that the disciples knew and loved, but now appearing in all the unparalleled glory of God's own majesty. Today's Gospel speaking about the Son of Man "coming in clouds with great power and glory" echoes a passage in the Book of Daniel but here the Son of Man is even more victorious.

His appearance is described in terms usually used in the Old Testament for the appearances of God himself. He sends out angels or messengers and gathers all God's people together: acts of God in the language of the Old Testament. In the OT prophecies where God manifests his glory in the final days the scattered people are gathered to Jerusalem and to God himself. Here they are gathered to the Son of Man, who commands the angels as if they were his own. Thus we have an affirmation of the central place Jesus, the Son of Man, has in the expectations of the Christians and a reflection of the divine role he is understood to exercise.

As we are going to celebrate Feast of Christ the King next week, may we be able to see in Jesus the savior who walks with us.

We thank every family who has sponsored the Cathedral Calling till now. Your suggestions and support would be appreciated.

(((SUNDAY READINGS & REFLECTION)))

1st Reading: Prophet Daniel 12:1-3

This passage affirms that the people, whose names are found written in the book of life, will be saved.

Response Ps 16

Preserve me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14,18

The single offering of Christ takes away sins.

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

Signs in the heavenly bodies such as the sun, the moon, and the stars will signal the second coming of Christ.

Prayers of the Faithful:

Lord, hear our prayer.

पहला पाठ: नबी दानिएल का ग्रंथ 12:1-3

संसार के अन्त में समस्त मानव जालि के लिए संकट का समय होगा। ईश्वर धर्मियों को सुरक्षित रखेगा और उन्हें पुनर्जीवित कर अनन्त जीवन प्रदान करेगा। बाइबिल के पूर्वार्द्ध में बहुत कम स्थलों पर पुनरुत्थान की चर्चा है।

अनुवाक्य: स्तोत्र 15

हे प्रभु! तुझ पर ही भरोसा है। तू मेरी रक्षा कर।

दूसरा पाठ: इब्रानियों के नाम पत्र 10:11-14,18

येसु मसीह ने सभी मनुष्यों के पापों के लिए प्रायश्चित्त किया है और अब वह ईश्वर के दाहिने विराजमान हैं। उनके बलिदान का लाभ उठाने के लिए हमें विश्वास के साथ कलीसिया के संस्कार ग्रहण करने हैं।

सुसमाचार: सन्त मारकुस 13:24-32

येसु अपने समय में प्रचलित शैली के अनुसार संसार के अन्त तथा अपने पुनरागमन का वर्णन करते हैं। उस घटना का समय अज्ञात है। हमें येसु के परामर्श के अनुसार हर समय प्रार्थना करते रहना और तैयार रहना चाहिए।

वि वासियों के निवेदन

हे पिता, हमारी प्रार्थना सुन।

REFLECTION

Conformity with Jesus' words means that we hear the teachings of Jesus and live them out. We have to live now to create a future for ourselves that we want and that God wants for us. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus' words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us. Rather than fear, we anticipate our future with joyful expectation.

On this second-to-last Sunday of the liturgical year, we realize that we have been faced with a choice throughout our journey during this past liturgical year: to be rooted in this world or in the words of Jesus. Our choices do make a difference. Our selfishness, our pride will often suggest to us to follow them. It is an easier road.

Christ, His Church and our consciences suggest another way. To follow that road, we must say no to our natural instincts. It may be difficult and demand much effort, but that effort will bring with it a peace and contentment that money will not buy.

Do we take the easy, downhill road in every choice we make? Sometimes we need to apply the brakes to downhill movements in our lives and try to change direction and to change gears. We do that by allowing Jesus to have a greater say in our lives, in our decisions, and in our thoughts." Where do we need to allow Jesus to have a greater say in our lives, in our decisions, in our thoughts, and in our choices?

Prayer for the Synod on Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever. Amen.

“प्रभु! हम किसके पास जायें!
आपके ही भावों में अनंत जीवन का सन्देश है।”
योहान 6:68

हे प्रभु, तू हमारे लिए क्रूस पर
मर गया ताकि हमें जीवन
प्राप्त हो और परिपूर्ण जीवन
प्राप्त हो। हम अपने पापों को
स्वीकारते और स्वयं को तेरे
चरणों में सौंपते हुए तेरी दया
की भीख मांगते हैं। प्रभु हमारी
रक्षा कर कि हम कोविड-19
महामारी से नष्ट न हो
जाएं। तेरी असीम दया और
प्रेम पर ही हमारा भरोसा है।
